

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

The 1917 state Congressional convention will be held at Brandon May 13 and 14.

The first issue of the Border News, an eight-page weekly, published by H. L. Cummings, at Canaan, has just appeared.

Four hundred children in costume presented the pageant, "Robin Hood" in Brattleboro Monday afternoon. It will net about $185 for the playground fund.

Corydon Parker, 82 years of age, has finished sawing and splitting ten cords of four-foot wood and wheeling the same to the woodshed of his home in Sutton.

The entire proceeds of a Memorial day concert to be given by the Richford Choral union will be devoted to a fund for the purchase of a children's playground.

Mrs. Dan J. Ballard of Castleton has a pink geranium with stalks five feet tall. The plant was in bloom all winter and now has 22 large clusters of blossoms and 13 bunches of buds.

Morton Williams of Essex, a laborer, has filed a petition in bankruptcy with Clerk F. S. Platt of the United States court. He has liabilities of $814.94 and assets of $100, all claimed exempt.

Amos Plastridge, who resides in Northfield and who will be 94 years old in June, attended church last Sunday and then took a 25-mile automobile ride in the afternoon. He is very active in mind and body.

The Vergennes board of civil authority has placed signs on all roads leading out of the place, announcing a speed limit of 15 miles per hour for automobiles. Special police have been appointed to warn and instruct all automobile drivers not to exceed the limit.

Perley Bennett, employed by the Davis Transfer company in Newport, was badly injured Saturday when he fell over the front of the wagon and the mule team he was driving passed over his body, fracturing his collar bone and several ribs, one of the latter penetrating his lung.

Daniel Cubria, arrested Sunday in Northfield for fishing with a trap net, pleaded guilty Monday to the charge and paid a fine of $100 and costs of $10.70. The case against John Lombana, his companion, was not pressed. They were released from jail on bail of $100 each Sunday afternoon, shortly after their arrest.

To remedy a shortness of one leg, an operation was performed recently on Harold Fitzgerald of Orwell, whereby it is hoped to lengthen that member four inches to the length of the right leg. The hip bone was broken and the foot drawn down, a piece of bone being grafted in. The leg will be in a plaster cast for six weeks.

Elizabeth, seven-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. B. Gordon of Williamsburg, narrowly missed drowning May 11 while Mayflowering. To avoid getting into wet grass, she stepped on a board placed over a spring, which tipped up, letting her into four feet of water. Men working nearby heard the cries of her companions and rescued her as she was going down the second time. She suffered no ill effects.

Mrs. Fred H. Walker, formerly of Burlington, is in the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, Ore., suffering from injuries received May 13 when she fell through an elevator shaft in the Norton hotel in that city breaking her back, also her left shoulder, hip and elbow. She was housekeeper in the hotel. She is responding so well to treatment that it is believed she will not be a cripple.

Last Monday, from the state fish hatchery at Roxbury, there were shipped 39,000 fingerlings to Woodstock, 39,000 to Warren, 15,000 were distributed from the hatchery in the Woodard brook and 5,000 by Will Rattee in the Long brook in Roxbury. Tuesday 57,000 went to Randolph, Wednesday 105,000 to Montpelier, Marshfield, Plainfield and South Ryegate. Thursday 105,000 to Montpelier, Barre and South Barre, and Saturday 90,000 to Randolph and South Royalton.

William Gavin, a 62-year-old Brattleboro man, while visiting in Springfield, Mass., Sunday was run over by an automobile driven by Frederick Schramm of Brightwood and was taken to a Springfield hospital for treatment. His nose was broken, both bones in his left leg were fractured, his head was lacerated and there were bruises on his body. Schramm was also held for a hearing. He stated that Mr. Gavin came from the darkness in front of his machine and was struck before he had time to stop the car. Mr. Gavin says he was by the side of the road and was trying to get out of the way when hit. Schramm sped away before ascertaining the man's injuries.

Probably Gone to Enlist.
Raymond Collins, an employee of the Holstein-Friesian association at Brattleboro the last two years and a member of Co. I, V. N. G., since February, is missing from the home of his aunt, Mrs. George E. Knight, corner of South Main and Washington streets. He left a note to his aunt saying that he was going away and requested that the keys to the office, which he left, be returned there Wednesday morning. He took his

Pacific Coast Summer Excursions via Santa Fe

A California Vacation is ideal because the seashore and mile high mountains are but an afternoon's motor ride apart. And if you go Santa Fe you are a mile or more in the sky most of the way through Arizona and New Mexico.

clothing, but left some personal articles, saying that he would send for them later. Where he has gone is a mystery to his intimate friends, but some of his intimate male friends believe he has gone to enlist as he has expressed great interest in military affairs.

He drew his pay Tuesday, but said nothing of his intention to leave town. An uncle, George A. Stone, is as ignorant of his possible whereabouts as is everyone else. So far as is known he had no difficulties or trouble that he was brooding over.

He is a member of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church, being in the E. V. Morse class. He is a Boy Scout of the first class and is scout master of the troop in the Baptist church.

Present at Last.
An earnest and out-spoken priest who had little patience with delinquency in the matter of church attendance, was called upon to preach the funeral sermon of a parishioner whose devotion to religion had suffered a lapse. In announcing the funeral the priest said:
"I am requested to announce the funeral services of Dennis T. Murphy, which will be held in this church Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. I am both sorry and willing to comply. Mr. Murphy's family will be here, all his relatives."
